

VZCZCXRO3969
RR RUEHBC RUEHDE RUEHDH RUEHKUK RUEHROV RUEHTRO
DE RUEHCL #0226 3451742
ZNY SSSS ZZB
R 111742Z DEC 09
FM AMCONSUL CASABLANCA
TO RUEHC/SECSTATE WASHDC 8575
INFO RUEHHE/ARAB LEAGUE COLLECTIVE
RUCNMGH/MAGHREB COLLECTIVE
RUEHRB/AMEMBASSY RABAT 0013
RUCPDOC/DEPT OF COMMERCE WASHDC

S E C R E T CASABLANCA 000226

SIPDIS

STATE FOR NEA AND NEA/MAG

E.O. 12958: DECL: 12/10/2019

TAGS: ECON ENV FIN MO PGOV

SUBJECT: PALACE COERCION PLAGUES MOROCCO'S REAL ESTATE SECTOR

Classified By: Consul General Millard for reasons 1.4 (b) and (d).

¶1. (C) SUMMARY: At a December 9 meeting, one of Morocco's leading business entrepreneurs XXXXXXXXXXXX, told EconOff that major institutions and processes of the Moroccan state are being used by the Palace to coerce and solicit bribes in the country's real estate sector. XXXXXXXXXXXX made clear to his XXXXXXXXXXXX interlocutors that Morocco's major investment decisions were in reality made by the King during the reign of King Mohammed VI is becoming more, not less, pervasive. END SUMMARY.

-----
A TALE OF ROYAL PROPORTIONS
-----

¶2. (C) XXXXXXXXXXXX major institutions and processes of the Moroccan state are used by the Palace to coerce and solicit bribes in the real estate sector. While corrupt practices existed during the reign of King Hassan II, XXXXXXXXXXXX, they have become much more institutionalized with

King Mohammed VI. Institutions such as the royal family's holding company, Ommium Nord Africaine (ONA), which now clears most large development projects, regularly coerce developers into granting beneficial rights to ONA, XXXXXXXXXXXX

¶3. XXXXXXXXXXXX

¶4. (C) XXXXXXXXXXXX ONA's XXXXXXXXXXXX reportedly told his interlocutors that Morocco's major investment decisions were effectively made by three individuals: the King, Fouad El Himma the former Deputy Minister of Interior who now leads the Palace-backed Party of Authenticity and Modernity, and Mohamed Mounir Al Majidi, who is the head of the King's private secretariat and his principal financial advisor. XXXXXXXXXXXX

-----
Comment
-----

¶5. (C) XXXXXXXXXXXX's experience demonstrate a reality, of which most Moroccans dare only whisper -- the influence and commercial interest of MILLARD